SHAE LYNN MARTIN - BALLET

Originally from Sherwood Park Alberta, Shae developed a love for dance at a young age. Starting her dance training with the Sherwood Park School of Dance, she won numerous awards as well as scholarships in competitions all over Alberta.

Miss. Shae truly found her passion for ballet as a child when she was given the opportunity to dance with The Alberta Ballet in such productions as The Nutcracker, and A Midsummer Nights Dream. At the age of 12 she decided to pursue her dream in ballet and auditioned for The Royal Winnipeg Ballet School. By 13 years old, she moved away from home to Winnipeg to pursue her ballet career.

As a student in the school, she was given many great opportunities to dance in such productions as In Concert, First Steps (where she had a chance to choreograph on peers), Concert Hour and Ballet In The Park. Upon graduation from The RWB Professional Division in 2014, Shae decided to explore contemporary by training with The Toronto Dance Theatre. Joining the RWB Aspirant program at the age of 18, she danced with the RWB company in Swan Lake, Giselle, The Nutcracker, and David Suzuki's Blue Dot Tour to name a few. Some of her favourite highlights of these years were dancing alongside Evelyn Hart, studying at The New Zealand School of dance and touring Canada with The RWB.

Since a hip injury took a turn in her ballet career, she has gone back to school working towards her Legal Assistant Diploma as well as attending the Teacher Training Program at the RWB. The journey of teaching for her has been at numerous dance studios in previous years one of which being with the RWB. Shae is very excited to be back teaching again in a new city sharing her love of dance!

Miss. Shae is excited to work with our younger set of Competitive dancers this summer at SDI – Summer Dance Intensive, after teaching last summer for the older set at the same workshop. She also has enjoyed her 2021-2022 season with Premiere Dance doing Competitive Choreography for our Pre-Senior & Senior dancers.
